

1.

What could happen if we stop vaccinating?

In 1975, Japan stopped vaccinating against pertussis.¹⁷ Just 5 years later they went from having 373 cases of pertussis to 13,000 cases and 41 deaths. Take a look at how vaccination controls infectious diseases.

Retrieved May 1, 2014 from <http://www.vaccinews.net/2011/12/why-vaccinate-the-reasons-are-in-the-vaccination-research/>